

YOU TWO TALK OVER THE VEXING HOUSE FURNISHING PROBLEM

We Gladly Extend the Helping Hand of Credit to the Newly Wedded Pair

You can both take your pen and paper and try to "figure it out," but you'll have "your labor for yours pains." How much easier to come directly here, and, with a courteous salesman, look through the various lines and decide right then and there, face to face with the furniture itself.

Credit—liberal credit—is yours for the asking. You two talk it over, and, after that, hasten here for a quick solution of the problem.

You'll Find Here Just What You Want at the Price You Want to Pay

PIANOS We carry a complete line of high-grade, standard, new and slightly used pianos. Just now we are offering unusual bargains. Come tomorrow and see how small an amount will buy a good piano here.

The fire bell above the headquarters engine house will not ring today—and did not ring Tuesday. The wife of Lieutenant Goodrich is seriously ill and the bell has been silenced.

"This town is certainly improving and growing," said a visitor from the southern part of the state this morning as he looked up and down Kansas avenue and saw in every block construction work on new buildings.

The day of the funeral of the late James E. Hurley no Santa Fe whistles will be blown in this city nor in any city. All company flags will be at half mast and every office building in every Santa Fe city will be draped with black and white.

Commissioner Miller is preparing to protect the new well and sub-river wells at the waterworks this winter. Mr. Miller will make the plant safe from further ice flows and gorges. He has promised that the people of Topeka will have all the water they can use this winter.

Several of the parts of the pipe organ in the Auditorium which were damaged by the fumes and heat of the gas lights have been removed and rushed to Chicago for repairs. It is hoped to have the organ in good shape for the convention of the Christian church in October.

for the convention of the Christian church in October.

From all over the Santa Fe system officials are coming to the funeral of the late J. E. Hurley. Telegrams asking the time and date are received every day at the general offices. The funeral will be the largest ever held in the city of Topeka. It is Saturday afternoon, next.

The Santa Fe shop office building, which is located just east of the Santa Fe shops, is enclosed and after a few frills are installed on the interior the "moving day" in the shops will be scheduled. The office men in the shop district will have warm and comfortable quarters this winter.

Professor Cottrell, head of the agricultural department of the Rock Island, who was in Topeka studying local conditions preparatory to sending a number of special trains through Kansas, left this morning for Oklahoma, where he is in charge personally of a wheat train in that state.

Sixty tons of borings from the Santa Fe shops will be used to make gas for the dirigible balloon which will fly in Topeka Fair week. No one but the fair experts know how gas is made out of borings and no attempt will be made to explain the process. Gene Stotts, the fair publicity man, says it is true—nuff said.

The new box car trusses on the Fillmore street bridge have been installed and the bridge is ready for use. The engineers state now that the bridge will hold all the Mallet locomotives that can be piled on it. It might be mentioned, however, that a Mallet engine couldn't be piled on the bridge.

From the responses heard from over the state and the enthusiasm of the country newspapers in regard to the state fair in Topeka, Fair week in this city will be the biggest celebration in history. Now if the weather man will spare Topeka the agonies of Merchants' week and deliver good weather, the fair will be a grand success.

The industrial council of the city has arranged a lengthy program for Labor day to be carried out at the annual Vinewood celebration. Fun will commence with a ball game at 10 o'clock in the morning between the Plumbers and the Unknowns. In the afternoon T. A. McNeal will give an address, Marsalis' band will furnish music. The sports will consist of 22 events.

A newly married couple boarded the train at Chicago a few days ago on their way to Topeka, where they are spending a part of their honeymoon. They observed that they were receiving more than their share of attention but the just-married are always self-conscious and expect to be noticed. People they had never seen before spoke to them and called them by name and then the awful explanation came, when they discovered a hand bill in a nearby seat, bearing the pictures of a sweet faced girl and a grinning young man, followed by a printed notice that they were on the train and had just been married. It read: "Please show them every possible attention so that their trip will be a never-to-be-forgotten one. It's a pipe to find Carl—he has red hair (she says it is golden). He is short and plump. He is very docile (especially since his marriage). She has dark brown hair. Will probably be located near Carl. They are going to Topeka to see Carl's papa and mamma, and then west to see brother and sister and scenery. As both are young and unsophisticated, any advice you can give them will be appreciated by them both. (Signed) O. U. Benedict."

The Ohio club will hold its annual picnic at Garfield park Monday, September 5. A golf program has been arranged and all Topeka people from Ohio are invited to attend. A basket luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. If the day is stormy the meeting will be held in Lincoln park hall.

WENT OVER TO THE ENEMY. Many Democrats Voted the Republican Ticket in Idaho.

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 31.—Indications are that Brady, Republican, was nominated for governor by about 2,500 majority at yesterday's primaries. The race for congress is so close between Hamar and French, Republicans, that no accurate statement is possible at this time. French is undoubtedly running stronger than had been expected. It developed that in this city many Democrats voted for O'Neill, Republican, for governor, and the plan was carried out over the state, thus cutting down Brady's majority and possibly beating Hawley, Democrat, for governor, and nominating Rice.

New York, Aug. 31.—The arrival in New York of Lieutenant Bela Schwarzwitz of the royal guards, Austrian army, revealed a romance which will have its culmination Sunday in the marriage of the lieutenant and Miss Margaret Amelia Breumm, daughter of a wealthy New York insurance man.

Miss Breumm was taken from a New York high school a few months ago by her parents, who wanted to get their daughter out of the companionship of a number of young women "whose talk was largely of beaux and similar frivolities." They decided to send her to a noted school for women in Budapest, where the atmosphere is said to be studious and serious.

But even in the Hungarian capital they have occasional dances and at one of these she met Lieutenant Schwarzwitz. The two became fast friends and a month ago Miss Breumm returned to surprise her parents with the news of her engagement. The prospective bride was 16 years old on July 22.

"What kind of fence-mending is it you statesmen are supposed to do when you go home for the summer?" "A little hedging, as a rule," replied Senator Sorghum.—Washington Star.
